the Agreement's Terms and Conditions

If the Defendant fails to comply with or violates any of the specified terms and conditions of this agreement, then the Travis County Attorney is no longer subject to the agreement and may refile the charges and prosecute the case to the full extent of the law.

The Defendant hereby agrees to the following if the Travis County Attorney refiles the charges:

- The Defendant agrees to plead guilty or no contest to the refiled charges, as shown by the Defendant's signing the attached plea form.
- The Defendant agrees and stipulates that this agreement, including the written confession of guilt that it contains, is admissible against him or her in court.
- The Defendant agrees and stipulates that affidavits, written statements of witnesses and other documentary evidence--including but not limited to the police offense report--are admissible against the Defendant at trial.
- The Defendant waives any statute-of-limitations objection to the refiled charges.
- The Travis County Attorney's burden of showing the Defendant's non-compliance with this agreement is by a preponderance of the evidence.
- If the parties agree to continue the deferred prosecution agreement after the County Attorney refiles the charges, then the agreement is extended for the same period as the original agreement, without the need to draft and sign a new document. For example, if the initial agreement was to last six months, then the extended agreement will last yet another six months from the date of the second dismissal.

I, the Defendant, have fully discussed this case and the evidence with my attorney. I am satisfied that he or she has properly represented me. I have received a copy of this Deferred Prosecution Agreement. I waive any further time to prepare for trial to which my attorney or I may be entitled.
